

THE HERALD.

LYCURGUS BARRETT - LOCAL EDITOR.
WEDNESDAY, JAN. 5, 1881.

The Biting Year.
"Ring out, wild bells, to the wild sky;
The flying cloud, the frosty night;
The year is flying in the night;
Ring out, wild bells, and let him die."
Ring out the old, ring in the new;
Ring happy bells across the snow;
The year is going, let him go,
Ring out the false, ring in the true."

PERSONAL.
Mr. H. F. Mustain, of Horse Cave, Hart county, Ky., is registered at the Hartford House.

Robert and Jesse Whittaker, of McLean county, were visiting relatives here during holidays.

Mr. John Layton, of Riley's Station, McLean county, was in town a day or two during Christmas week.

Prof. W. Alexander and wife passed a portion of the holiday vacation with friends in South Carrollton.

Rev. W. B. Arvin reached here yesterday and will assist Dr. W. P. Bennett in the protracted meeting now in progress.

Miss Lizzie Box, art teacher in Hartford College, returned from a holiday visit to her parents in Cincinnati yesterday evening.

Thos. D. and H. W. Lewis, of Rosine, passed a portion of the holidays here, taking in the hop Friday night at the Hartford House.

Mr. F. W. Griffin, of this place, left last Friday for Elizabethtown, where he will remain a few days with his relatives and friends.

Mr. Wade English, of Elizabethtown, passed a day or so in Hartford this week. He was on his return to Bethel College, Russellville.

Mr. B. E. S. Pearl, ticket agent and telegraph operator at Greenville, was in town Sunday night. He called to see us while here.

Mr. Willis G. Short, who has been visiting his sister and brother here for a week or more past, left to visit friends and relatives in South Carrollton and Rumsey.

Misses Alberta Murray, Emma Wilhoite and Elita Montague, pupils of Hartford College, who passed the holiday vacation at their respective homes, have returned.

Mr. C. W. Gates, for sometime clerk in the Hartford House, has resigned his position and left Monday morning for his home in Calhoun, Ky. Mr. Gates takes with him the kind wishes of all.

Miss Lizzie, daughter of Hon. E. D. Walker, left yesterday morning for an extended visit to friends in Paris, Tenn. Miss Lizzie takes with her the kind wishes of a large circle of friends here.

Mr. O. H. Bennett, of San Antonio, Texas, has been in this county for several weeks visiting the scenes of his boyhood. He is here in the interest of his father's estate, Mr. Titus Bennett, deceased.

Miss Grace Thompson, music teacher, and Miss Lizzie Morton, primary teacher, of Hartford College, who passed the holiday vacation in Princeton, Ky., returned Saturday evening, to the gratification of their many friends here.

Go to the Red Front.
Here we are for 1881.
Leap-year has leaped out.
For chickens and turkeys go to the Red Front.

A large quantity of fine ice was gathered during the late cold snap.
Oh! oh! what nice sorghum molasses at the Red Front, only 40 cents per gallon.

Last Monday was County Court and also Court of Claims, which is still in session.

Kendall's Spavin Cure—try it and be convinced. For man or beast. Read advertisement.

The wife of T. P. Faught presented her husband a New Year's gift in the shape of a son. Happy Papa.

Just received at the Red Front, in barrels of that well-known food, "Talk of the Town." Try it. None better.

The wife of Mr. Geo. A. Brown, who lived about six miles east of Hartford, died Thursday, Dec. 23d, of heart disease.

Horse owners cannot afford to overlook the wonderful success of Kendall's Spavin Cure. Advertisement in another column.

The trains on the P. & E. Railroad have been running behind time for several days past, which has made mail facilities bad.

Just received, a full stock of family groceries, and will always sell as low as the lowest. Come and see me.

Red Front. GROSS WILLIAMS.
H. Richardson, Sae and Fox Agency, Indian Territory, says: "The 'Only Long Pad' has restored me to health, and I shall be glad to recommend it to any one."

A protracted meeting, under the pastorage of Dr. W. P. Bennett, began here last Sunday. Bro. Bennett will be assisted by able ministers, and it is hoped that the meeting may result in much good.

Mr. David L. Smith, sheriff-elect, filled his bond last Monday and took the oath of office. His deputies are John B. Rogers, Rosine, San. Keweenaw, Fordville, Marion Yates, Buford, and J. H. Kimmel, Cevalco.

Mrs. Dorcas Burchfield, a widow, shot and killed her brother-in-law, Tom Burchfield, in Francis, Gibson county, Indiana, Christmas night. She was held to answer without bail and lodged in jail at Princeton.

If you desire perfect secrecy as to the day of your marriage or that you will be married, give the leading Merchant Tailors of Louisville, J. Winter & Co., corner of Third and Market Streets, an order for a wedding suit to be made by measure. Their prices are reasonable and they insure a fit.

Good-bye, old year.
Net, for darning at Anderson's Bazaar.

Bob & Jack have the best coffee in town.
For nice canned goods go to the Red Front.

Salt $2.00 per barrel, at Rogers & King's, Buford, Ky.

Large size boys' home-knit socks wanted at Anderson's Bazaar.

Red Front is the place to buy your groceries, provisions, fresh meats, etc.

Blanket, comforts and coverlets in great variety at Anderson's Bazaar.

A lot of Cate's yarn will be received in a few days at Anderson's Bazaar.

Lon Hill will open a new saloon in the building formerly occupied by him, in a few days.

Oh, those cloaks, those eight dollar cloaks, to be had for five dollars at Anderson's Bazaar.

Marion Maddox and Tom Johnson had a fist and skull combat at Beaver Dam last week.

The holiday festivities here embraced shows, concerts, hops, social parties and a Sabbath-school entertainment.

A difficulty occurred in Cronwell last week between A. Jones, county assessor, and T. P. Faught, in which Jones received a cut on the arm.

A large stock of ladies' and men's overcoats, at from 75c to $1.75 per pair. ROGERS & KING, Buford, Ky.

Married—December 28th, 1880, by Rev. J. S. McDaniel, at the residence of Douglas Feenster, in Ohio county, Mr. Wm. Feenster to Miss Nannie E. Bell, both of Ohio county.

Married—January 2d, 1881, by Rev. J. S. McDaniel, at the residence of John Miller, Ohio county, Mr. John W. Tanner, of McLean county, to Miss Maria C. Miller.

A difficulty occurred near Beaver Dam during the holidays, between Warren L. Maddox and D. D. and C. T. Austin, in which Maddox received a severe cut.

Charles Hartman, Toledo, Ohio, says: "I know it cured me, and I hope others similarly troubled with pain in the chest may be helped by the 'Only Long Pad' as I have. See adv."

The boys of the Hartford Shoe Shop have been so busy that they have not had time to advertise. They have caught up with their work and have a little spare time, so bring on your work. Satisfaction given and work guaranteed. Sign of the big red boot.

"A friend in need is a friend indeed." You will never receive such clear and unfeigned evidence of this as when, after much pain and oft-repeated failures of other medicines to give relief, you turn to Crooke's "Vermifuge."

Then turn in at once, and call upon the agent and get a bottle. For sale by Thomas & Kimbley, Hartford.

Look at this and believe it when you read it, that positively with the beginning of the year 1881 we will sell strictly for the cash. If we refuse you credit it will be your fault for asking us. Also, if the accounts already made are not paid at once, they will be put out for collection, so take fair warning.

WILLIAMS BROS.

Mrs. Emma Patterson, wife of Wm. Patterson, of Point Pleasant, died last Sunday night after a long illness, of consumption. She was a daughter of James Iglehart and a woman universally esteemed for her fine social qualities and excellent disposition. The remains were interred on Monday at 2 o'clock in the grave-yard on her father's farm.

The entertainment given to the little boys and girls by the officers and teachers of the Sabbath-school, at Mrs. S. Hall, Friday night, Dec. 24th, was indeed a pleasant affair. Every little girl and boy belonging to the Sabbath-school received a gift appropriate to size and sex. Nice refreshments were also served to all present.

The house of Walker Bratcher, near Spring Lick, Grayson county, Ky., was burned up last Sunday. Mr. Bratcher and family were from home and everything was consumed, including 500 pounds of pork. Moral—insure against fire. Barrett & Bro., Hartford, Ky., are ready, willing, waiting, anxious and able to furnish safe, reliable insurance on any desirable property. Call on them at once; do not delay.

We tender Mrs. J. S. Vaughn our thanks for an invitation to the sumptuous collection served at 12 M., New Year's day. One of her deliciously cooked meals has a good influence over one's disposition for days. She knows how and has meals cooked in a style that can't be surpassed anywhere. Mrs. Vaughn has a pleasant word for every one and we can cheerfully recommend her house as a pleasant place for those who wish good boarding.

Angelina Taylor, her daughter, Alice Taylor, and Harriet Midkiff, all colored, were arrested last week on suspicion of being shop-lifters. Alice was found guilty of pilfering a pair of shoes from James A. Thomas. Harriet Midkiff was found guilty of abstracting a pair of shoes from R. P. Rowe & Bro. They were sent to jail 29 days each.

Anderson's Bazaar had lost some small shawls which were traced to Angelina Taylor and Harriet Midkiff. Angelina has not been tried yet.

In Howe's Valley, Harlan county, Ky., December 21st, 1880, Bud Harrington and David J. Carter had a quarrel about a lawsuit. In an effort to settle it they got to fighting. Harrington shot Carter in the mouth with a pistol. Carter's son was close by with a shot gun loaded with bird shot. Carter snatched the gun from his son and returned the fire, hitting Harrington in the shoulder. He then picked up a blacksmith's hammer and hit Harrington on the head, killing him instantly. Carter and son were arrested; the son was acquitted and the father held to answer.

Do not fail to call. Ford's and pay your account, which is due and past, and by so doing saves.

The hop given by the young gentlemen at Hartford House last Friday night was quite a pleasant affair.

Lycurgus Miller, who received a severe cut on his left forearm with an ax, some weeks ago, is able to go again.

Married—At Mr. LaFette Ford's, Ohio county, Ky., Dec. 23d, 1880, by Rev. J. T. Casdier, Mr. John W. Cox and Miss Ida F. Wade, happiness and success attend them.

We learn that the men of our neighbor town, Rockport, had quite a merry Christmas. Their gettied $20, and their Christmas had $500 worth of fruit upon it. Rev. W. W. Williams is now conducting a revival at the Baptist church in that place.

Mrs. John H. Bales had a dream Monday night that her husband had been shot in Hartford by an assassin. This dream came to her about 1 o'clock in the night, when she told to the family. This was about two hours after her husband was shot. This is a remarkable occurrence.

The Minstrel Concerts, given under the auspices of Hartford Central Band, at Court Hall, Thursday and Saturday nights, Dec. 23d and 25th, were quite a success, financially as well as entertaining. The music was exceedingly good and the performances surpassed.

We would like to give characters and comments, but space will not permit.

Married, in Butler county, Ky., December 28, 1880, by Elder Andrew Taylor, of Auburn, Ky., Eld. Pendleton Taylor, of Auburn, Ky., Miss Minnie E. Bunch, of Butler county, Ky. The groom is a son of the late Alfred Taylor, of this county, and the bride is one of the most successful educators of Butler county. A happy pair.

The lady teachers and pupils of the Hartford College all left, spend the holidays at their homes, all the Hartford bachelors, including the local editor of the HERALD, mourning through the streets and using to be comforted.

Warren has certainly a lot of experience in the "leftness" business or he would not know so well how to sympathize with the young gentlemen of Hartford. We acknowledge our share of that feeling, but nevertheless try to comfort. However it may prove will try to comfort.

Dr. LaVega Berry, of Yazoo City, and Mrs. Susie Redding, near Deacons, Miss., were married Dec. 21, 1880, at the home of the Doctor's child, and where awaited them one of the grandest receptions ever witnessed in that place, Beaver Dam, at the residence of the groom's father. Quite a number of relatives and friends from Hartford, included with those at Beaver Dam, were present with extended hands and congratulations, and whose best wishes were bountifully out for the future happiness of those figuring so conspicuously in Cupid's high carnival, as well as to partake of everything that culinary ingenuity could devise.

Dr. Berry is an eminent practitioner, with fine social qualities; the bride is regal in appearance, has a sweet face and her disposition, characteristic of her Southern State, is bright and sunny, and my ardent wish is that no rough sea will ever snap the silvery chord of love that now so happily unites them, and that they may eventually anchor in the harbor where the pure find eternal rest.

3291 3291 3291

The hand-writing on the wall, or the problem of 329 is solved at last. It simply means that at Rogers & King's, Buford, Ky., you can find—

3 times as many goods,
2 times the cheapest,
9 times as much satisfaction after buying your goods there. Big prices will not do in these times when tobacco is low, and even the wealthy can't afford to waste their money. We have a big stock and mean to sell; therefore will place before you some land-slides that are beyond the whisper of competition. We are wider awake than ever before on this subject. Call and see the difference between a dead and a live man, low and high prices, now and a month ago.

Gold is a good thing but give it genius, ambition, energy that never tires, a mind that never wanders, an eye that never sleeps, and a nerve that never quivers and it will ride rough on the world. If there is a better man or more manly in good words at low prices, we mean to be master of the situation. Today, we are diving at "rock bottom." Give us a call and level your heads upon this subject.

ROGERS & KING,
Buford, Ohio co., Ky.

THE READY PISTOL.
JOHN H. ALLEN SHOOTING AND KILLING JOHN H. BATES.

About 10 o'clock Monday night, Hartford was the scene of an almost instant death by shooting.

J. E. Bates, constable of Buford precinct, and John H. Allen, who lives east of Hartford, were in Heverin & Son's saloon when a difficulty arose between them, resulting in Allen shooting Bates through the left breast, killing him almost instantly. The shot knocked him partly to the floor, but recovering he started down the street, when in front of Williams Bros' grocery he fell a bloody corpse.

Bates had been under the influence of whisky more or less all day, and had gotten into difficulty in the evening, for which he was arrested and put under bond for his appearance next morning.

Bates and Allen had a difficulty previous to the shooting in which Bates drew a knife on Allen, and at the time Allen shot, Bates was in the act of shooting on Allen.

Bates leaves a wife and several children. Allen also has a family. Allen was arrested and committed to jail to await an examining trial, and the dead body was taken to the Court House to await the arrival of parents and relatives. We regret that such a scene may never be witnessed in our quiet town again.

A CARD
Exonerating A. C. Phillips.

FORDSVILLE, KY., Dec. 29, 1880.
Editor Herald:
We noticed in your issue of the 8th inst. an account of a difficulty between

A. C. Phillips and brother in Fordsville without giving the name of one of the parties, or the circumstances which led to the affair. Now we, knowing the parties and their standing in the community, wish to acquaint the public with the precise facts concerning the unfortunate affair, as well as the circumstances that led to it.

Alfred C. Phillips and his brother, Wm. Phillips, came to town on or about the 25th of December to see the most friendly and a friendly feeling existing between them so far as we know or have heard of, when William Phillips, becoming very much under the influence of strong drink, commenced cursing and abusing Alfred in the most violent manner, for, as we understand, some imaginary misunderstanding that occurred to his mind at the time, and which Alfred used every means in his power to stop without running quite away.

William advanced upon Alfred for the apparent purpose of striking him, when Alfred struck him in the face in self-defense a single blow and injured those who were near to take him away.

William, recovering from the blow, advanced upon Alfred a second time and gathered him by the beard and drew out a considerable quantity of his whiskers but Alfred did not strike him again and left the ground and shortly left the town, though pursued by William a short distance down the road, to avoid any further difficulty with him.

We are of the opinion that William Phillips was so much under the influence of liquor as not to realize the relationship existing between them, and that Alfred C. Phillips, who had done under like circumstances.

S. P. ROBERT,
J. M. JOHNSON,
QUENT LAMHAM,
H. W. COBB,
J. B. CHAMBERS.

A Union of States.

Dr. LaVega Berry, of Yazoo City, and Mrs. Susie Redding, near Deacons, Miss., were married Dec. 21, 1880, at the home of the Doctor's child, and where awaited them one of the grandest receptions ever witnessed in that place, Beaver Dam, at the residence of the groom's father. Quite a number of relatives and friends from Hartford, included with those at Beaver Dam, were present with extended hands and congratulations, and whose best wishes were bountifully out for the future happiness of those figuring so conspicuously in Cupid's high carnival, as well as to partake of everything that culinary ingenuity could devise.

Dr. Berry is an eminent practitioner, with fine social qualities; the bride is regal in appearance, has a sweet face and her disposition, characteristic of her Southern State, is bright and sunny, and my ardent wish is that no rough sea will ever snap the silvery chord of love that now so happily unites them, and that they may eventually anchor in the harbor where the pure find eternal rest.

3291 3291 3291

The hand-writing on the wall, or the problem of 329 is solved at last. It simply means that at Rogers & King's, Buford, Ky., you can find—

3 times as many goods,
2 times the cheapest,
9 times as much satisfaction after buying your goods there. Big prices will not do in these times when tobacco is low, and even the wealthy can't afford to waste their money. We have a big stock and mean to sell; therefore will place before you some land-slides that are beyond the whisper of competition. We are wider awake than ever before on this subject. Call and see the difference between a dead and a live man, low and high prices, now and a month ago.

Gold is a good thing but give it genius, ambition, energy that never tires, a mind that never wanders, an eye that never sleeps, and a nerve that never quivers and it will ride rough on the world. If there is a better man or more manly in good words at low prices, we mean to be master of the situation. Today, we are diving at "rock bottom." Give us a call and level your heads upon this subject.

ROGERS & KING,
Buford, Ohio co., Ky.

THE READY PISTOL.
JOHN H. ALLEN SHOOTING AND KILLING JOHN H. BATES.

About 10 o'clock Monday night, Hartford was the scene of an almost instant death by shooting.

J. E. Bates, constable of Buford precinct, and John H. Allen, who lives east of Hartford, were in Heverin & Son's saloon when a difficulty arose between them, resulting in Allen shooting Bates through the left breast, killing him almost instantly. The shot knocked him partly to the floor, but recovering he started down the street, when in front of Williams Bros' grocery he fell a bloody corpse.

Bates had been under the influence of whisky more or less all day, and had gotten into difficulty in the evening, for which he was arrested and put under bond for his appearance next morning.

Bates and Allen had a difficulty previous to the shooting in which Bates drew a knife on Allen, and at the time Allen shot, Bates was in the act of shooting on Allen.

Bates leaves a wife and several children. Allen also has a family. Allen was arrested and committed to jail to await an examining trial, and the dead body was taken to the Court House to await the arrival of parents and relatives. We regret that such a scene may never be witnessed in our quiet town again.

A CARD
Exonerating A. C. Phillips.

FORDSVILLE, KY., Dec. 29, 1880.
Editor Herald:
We noticed in your issue of the 8th inst. an account of a difficulty between

A. C. Phillips and brother in Fordsville without giving the name of one of the parties, or the circumstances which led to the affair. Now we, knowing the parties and their standing in the community, wish to acquaint the public with the precise facts concerning the unfortunate affair, as well as the circumstances that led to it.

Alfred C. Phillips and his brother, Wm. Phillips, came to town on or about the 25th of December to see the most friendly and a friendly feeling existing between them so far as we know or have heard of, when William Phillips, becoming very much under the influence of strong drink, commenced cursing and abusing Alfred in the most violent manner, for, as we understand, some imaginary misunderstanding that occurred to his mind at the time, and which Alfred used every means in his power to stop without running quite away.

William advanced upon Alfred for the apparent purpose of striking him, when Alfred struck him in the face in self-defense a single blow and injured those who were near to take him away.

William, recovering from the blow, advanced upon Alfred a second time and gathered him by the beard and drew out a considerable quantity of his whiskers but Alfred did not strike him again and left the ground and shortly left the town, though pursued by William a short distance down the road, to avoid any further difficulty with him.

We are of the opinion that William Phillips was so much under the influence of liquor as not to realize the relationship existing between them, and that Alfred C. Phillips, who had done under like circumstances.

S. P. ROBERT,
J. M. JOHNSON,
QUENT LAMHAM,
H. W. COBB,
J. B. CHAMBERS.

A Union of States.

Dr. LaVega Berry, of Yazoo City, and Mrs. Susie Redding, near Deacons, Miss., were married Dec. 21, 1880, at the home of the Doctor's child, and where awaited them one of the grandest receptions ever witnessed in that place, Beaver Dam, at the residence of the groom's father. Quite a number of relatives and friends from Hartford, included with those at Beaver Dam, were present with extended hands and congratulations, and whose best wishes were bountifully out for the future happiness of those figuring so conspicuously in Cupid's high carnival, as well as to partake of everything that culinary ingenuity could devise.

Dr. Berry is an eminent practitioner, with fine social qualities; the bride is regal in appearance, has a sweet face and her disposition, characteristic of her Southern State, is bright and sunny, and my ardent wish is that no rough sea will ever snap the silvery chord of love that now so happily unites them, and that they may eventually anchor in the harbor where the pure find eternal rest.

3291 3291 3291

The hand-writing on the wall, or the problem of 329 is solved at last. It simply means that at Rogers & King's, Buford, Ky., you can find—

3 times as many goods,
2 times the cheapest,
9 times as much satisfaction after buying your goods there. Big prices will not do in these times when tobacco is low, and even the wealthy can't afford to waste their money. We have a big stock and mean to sell; therefore will place before you some land-slides that are beyond the whisper of competition. We are wider awake than ever before on this subject. Call and see the difference between a dead and a live man, low and high prices, now and a month ago.

Gold is a good thing but give it genius, ambition, energy that never tires, a mind that never wanders, an eye that never sleeps, and a nerve that never quivers and it will ride rough on the world. If there is a better man or more manly in good words at low prices, we mean to be master of the situation. Today, we are diving at "rock bottom." Give us a call and level your heads upon this subject.

ROGERS & KING,
Buford, Ohio co., Ky.

THE READY PISTOL.
JOHN H. ALLEN SHOOTING AND KILLING JOHN H. BATES.

About 10 o'clock Monday night, Hartford was the scene of an almost instant death by shooting.

J. E. Bates, constable of Buford precinct, and John H. Allen, who lives east of Hartford, were in Heverin & Son's saloon when a difficulty arose between them, resulting in Allen shooting Bates through the left breast, killing him almost instantly. The shot knocked him partly to the floor, but recovering he started down the street, when in front of Williams Bros' grocery he fell a bloody corpse.

Bates had been under the influence of whisky more or less all day, and had gotten into difficulty in the evening, for which he was arrested and put under bond for his appearance next morning.

Bates and Allen had a difficulty previous to the shooting in which Bates drew a knife on Allen, and at the time Allen shot, Bates was in the act of shooting on Allen.

Bates leaves a wife and several children. Allen also has a family. Allen was arrested and committed to jail to await an examining trial, and the dead body was taken to the Court House to await the arrival of parents and relatives. We regret that such a scene may never be witnessed in our quiet town again.

A CARD
Exonerating A. C. Phillips.

FORDSVILLE, KY., Dec. 29, 1880.
Editor Herald:
We noticed in your issue of the 8th inst. an account of a difficulty between

A. C. Phillips and brother in Fordsville without giving the name of one of the parties, or the circumstances which led to the affair. Now we, knowing the parties and their standing in the community, wish to acquaint the public with the precise facts concerning the unfortunate affair, as well as the circumstances that led to it.

Alfred C. Phillips and his brother, Wm. Phillips, came to town on or about the 25th of December to see the most friendly and a friendly feeling existing between them so far as we know or have heard of, when William Phillips, becoming very much under the influence of strong drink, commenced cursing and abusing Alfred in the most violent manner, for, as we understand, some imaginary misunderstanding that occurred to his mind at the time, and which Alfred used every means in his power to stop without running quite away.

William advanced upon Alfred for the apparent purpose of striking him, when Alfred struck him in the face in self-defense a single blow and injured those who were near to take him away.

William, recovering from the blow, advanced upon Alfred a second time and gathered him by the beard and drew out a considerable quantity of his whiskers but Alfred did not strike him again and left the ground and shortly left the town, though pursued by William a short distance down the road, to avoid any further difficulty with him.

We are of the opinion that William Phillips was so much under the influence of liquor as not to realize the relationship existing between them, and that Alfred C. Phillips, who had done under like circumstances.

S. P. ROBERT,
J. M. JOHNSON,
QUENT LAMHAM,
H. W. COBB,
J. B. CHAMBERS.

A Union of States.

Dr. LaVega Berry, of Yazoo City, and Mrs. Susie Redding, near Deacons, Miss., were married Dec. 21, 1880, at the home of the Doctor's child, and where awaited them one of the grandest receptions ever witnessed in that place, Beaver Dam, at the residence of the groom's father. Quite a number of relatives and friends from Hartford, included with those at Beaver Dam, were present with extended hands and congratulations, and whose best wishes were bountifully out for the future happiness of those figuring so conspicuously in Cupid's high carnival, as well as to partake of everything that culinary ingenuity could devise.

Dr. Berry is an eminent practitioner, with fine social qualities; the bride is regal in appearance, has a sweet face and her disposition, characteristic of her Southern State, is bright and sunny, and my ardent wish is that no rough sea will ever snap the silvery chord of love that now so happily unites them, and that they may eventually anchor in the harbor where the pure find eternal rest.

3291 3291 3291

The hand-writing on the wall, or the problem of 329 is solved at last. It simply means that at Rogers & King's, Buford, Ky., you can find—

3 times as many goods,
2 times the cheapest,
9 times as much satisfaction after buying your goods there. Big prices will not do in these times when tobacco is low, and even the wealthy can't afford to waste their money. We have a big stock and mean to sell; therefore will place before you some land-slides that are beyond the whisper of competition. We are wider awake than ever before on this subject. Call and see the difference between a dead and a live man, low and high prices, now and a month ago.

Gold is a good thing but give it genius, ambition, energy that never tires, a mind that never wanders, an eye that never sleeps, and a nerve that never quivers and it will ride rough on the world. If there is a better man or more manly in good words at low prices, we mean to be master of the situation. Today, we are diving at "rock bottom." Give us a call and level your heads upon this subject.

ROGERS & KING,
Buford, Ohio co., Ky.

THE READY PISTOL.
JOHN H. ALLEN SHOOTING AND KILLING JOHN H. BATES.

About 10 o'clock Monday night, Hartford was the scene of an almost instant death by shooting.

J. E. Bates, constable of Buford precinct, and John H. Allen, who lives east of Hartford, were in Heverin & Son's saloon when a difficulty arose between them, resulting in Allen shooting Bates through the left breast, killing him almost instantly. The shot knocked him partly to the floor, but recovering he started down the street, when in front of Williams Bros' grocery he fell a bloody corpse.

Bates had been under the influence of whisky more or less all day, and had gotten into difficulty in the evening, for which he was arrested and put under bond for his appearance next morning.

Bates and Allen had a difficulty previous to the shooting in which Bates drew a knife on Allen, and at the time Allen shot, Bates was in the act of shooting on Allen.

Bates leaves a wife and several children. Allen also has a family. Allen was arrested and committed to jail to await an examining trial, and the dead body was taken to the Court House to await the arrival of parents and relatives. We regret that such a scene may never be witnessed in our quiet town again.

A CARD
Exonerating A. C. Phillips.

FORDSVILLE, KY., Dec. 29, 1880.
Editor Herald:
We noticed in your issue of the 8th inst. an account of a difficulty between

CROOKER'S

SURELY VERMIFUGE
Is the ONLY RELIABLE
Worm Killer
That is Pleasant to Take.

Each unit contains eight grains of pure Santonine, besides other superior antihelmintics, which with the greatest simplicity and ease to be held in perfect solution.

This preparation is recommended to the public with the greatest confidence, and we are fully convinced that it will meet with the greatest success, for all who desire a safe and reliable worm medicine.

It is a scientific combination of the most medicinal principles, so mixed as to insure the greatest efficacy and the best possible results, while it is pleasant to take, and is entirely vegetable, and free from all deleterious or dangerous substances, and it is absolutely safe in all kinds of Worms from the human system. So confident are we of this fact that we are authorized to offer rewards to return the money, in all cases.

Whenever it fails to give perfect satisfaction,
CROOK'S NEVER FAIL
 IS THE BEST
Pain Killer
 And cures all ACHES and PAINS in a short er time than anything else known.
C. CROOKE & CO
 PINE HILL, KY.
 ARTHUR PETER & CO.,
 WHOLESALE AGENTS
 Louisville, Ky.
 Sold in Hartford by
 THOMAS & KIMBLE

[illegible]

EAST SIDE MARKET ST.,
HARTFORD, KY.

—

All who wish a smooth shave, a Shantago has remained in the most approved style of the art, or of any other service in my line, can be accommodated, with neatness and dispatch. Come one and all, my friends and neigh.

Respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
HENRY PACE

6-15-ly

and Horse-Powers.
Most Complete Thresher Factory | Established
in the World. | 1848
32 YEARS of continuous and successful business, without change of management, or location, to "back up" the broad warranty given on all our goods.

[illegible]

and the Threshermen are invited to investigate this machine's Threshing Machinery.
 Circulars sent free. Address
NICHOLS, SHEPARD & CO.
 Battle Creek, Michigan.

7,16m

BOSTWICK'S
 GIANT
 RIDING SAW
 MACHINE

This Wonderful Improved Saw Machine is warranted to saw a two-foot log in three minutes, and more cord wood or logs of any size in less than two men can chip or saw the old way. Every Farmer and Lumberman needs one.
AGENTS WANTED.—Illustrated circulars and terms free.
 Address FARMERS' MANUFACTURING CO.

[illegible]

HARRIS REMEDY CO.'S CHEMISTS
Unqualified testimony to the Efficacy of Prof. Harris' Nephrit Pills, taken from Letters received from Patrons:

Indian, April 11th, 1879.—The remedy is working perfectly. Had epigaea from weakness, for eight years past.

Chicago, Aug. 14, 1879.—I am thoroughly cured and feel tip top. I am doing as well as ever.

Missouri, Sept. 18, 1879.—I received so much benefit from the use of your remedies that I want to try them in another case. This is of long standing, and will need something very strong.

Mich., Jan. 25, 1879.—I have used up your package of medicine. I feel better than I have for some time. My appetite is stopped all apparent trouble, but there is a weakness yet, and 1 Iowa City, Dec. 10, 1879.—I am almost surprised at your Pastilles. They hit me just where I claim on me. I am not twice as much of a man as I was before taking. I was on the verge of the grave, I thought, and there was no cure for me, but I took your Pills in time.

2 West Virginia, Aug. 28, 1879.—I received your medicine, and I believe it has cured me, for which I am very thankful. I could not sleep at night, and it has calmed me another box (No. 2) for a friend. You have done a great thing for me. I will send you all the orders I can.

From a Physician and Surgeon.

3 Milwaukee, June 20, 1879.—I have just received another box of the Pastilles. The patient on whom I have used one box, in addition to a sample box, is fast recovering, and I think another will get him well.

From a Druggist.

4 Maryland, Sept. 3, 1879.—Last January we got from you a box of your remedy, for one of our customers, and it has made ing in the same way, and wish by return mail one No. 3 bag.

jun 1-81